9TH INTERNATIONAL MEETINGS OF THE PHOTOGRAPHIC PORTRAIT

PRÉSENTATION

Since 2004, each biennial has staged an edition of "L'Été des Portraits". This grand exhibition and competition displays 1,000 photographic portraits by 250 to 300 photographers from around the world, in the streets, parks and even on the water.

1.

Can exhibit and compete : All professional photographers from around the world.

2.

The unique theme of free expression is : « Portrait and human representation in all its forms ».

3.

The proposed photos may have been presented (and award-winning) in other contests, or seen on social media.

4.

The candidate must be the author of the photos submitted.

5.

The candidate must possess the « model release » of all models present in the proposed images and freely releases reproduction and representation rights - for the entire world and for a period of three years to promote the competition and the festival (brochures, free postcards, internal magazines and websites of the association, Facebook page and group, press kits...) to the association « Les Amis du Vieux Bourbon », the organizing body of the festival « L'Été des Portraits ».

No other use will be made of the photographs without the written consent of the Participants.

The candidate can propose from 1 to 10 unsigned images. They must be transferred to the official competition website (<http://inscriptions.letedesportraits.fr/>), ready to be printed, format 2953 px on the largest side (50 cm / 150 dpi) without borders, margins or other effects, as well as a selfportrait (optional) in the same format, which will also be judged in the optional « self-portrait » category.

The files must be labeled as follows : name_firstname_000 (ex: mercury_freddie_001).

The photographers details and website will be added to the exhibition panel.

7.

To ensure maximum media coverage, each exhibitor is asked to attach a list of his/her regional and local authorities, as well as the name and address of the Mayor of his/her city or town. Each person listed will be individually informed of the portraitist's participation in the ninth edition of the International Meetings of the Photographic Portait - « L'Été des Portraits ».

8.

Deadline for registration and sending photos : 31st March 2021. Please help us to prepare the exhibition by registering as soon as you know the number of images you will send.

9.

Participation fees :

- Professional photographers : 35 € (thirty-five euros) per photo (excluding selfportrait).
- Apprentice photographers and students : 30 € (thirty euro) per photo (from 1 to 3 photos).

Payment is to be made via the website (<http://inscriptions.letedesportraits.fr/>)

The server will generate an automatic invoice.

10.

A certificate of participation will be given to each exhibitor.

11.

The competition will reward three professional laureates (Crystal, Diamond and Ruby Awards) and three promising young photographers. Seven special awards will be attributed this year. The jury are free to nominate one or more additional special mentions if they so desire :

- Trophy Portrait -Person born in 2000 : 20 years old in 2020 !
- Trophy Underwater Portrait.
- Trophy Nude photography.
- Trophy Black and White portrait.
- Trophy Creativity.
- Trophy Street photography (street portrait). We advise a square format for this category.
- Trophy Pick of the Jury.

12.

The jury is composed of portrait photographers (MOF 2019 « France's Best Workers »), who will meet in the spring of 2021 to deliberate. Members of the Jury have the opportunity to exhibit at the event but are unable to compete.

13.

On entering the competition, the candidate / exhibitor undertakes to comply with the above rules and regulations, and accepts the judgment that will be made. The results will be announced at the official opening and prize-giving on Sunday 11th July 2021 in Bourbon-Lancy and the following week on the official website (<http://www.letedesportraits.fr/>).
